

Please do not weaken any of the current provisions of existing no-call lists. Government cannot intrude into the private homes of people without a warrant. Businesses should not be allowed to repeatedly invade our homes, interrupting our private lives.

Using Cable TV as an example, I would also like to point out that in many if not most communities one cable company has a monopoly on the cable service provided to customers in that community. Now that people have the choice of switching to a satellite provider, cable companies are crying about losing customers. WHEN SWITCHING TO SATELITE TV SERVICE, CUSTOMERS ARE REQUIRED TO SIGN A CONTRACT FOR A PERIOD OF ONE OR TWO YEARS. THIS MEANS EVEN IF SOMEONE WANTED TO SWITCH BACK TO CABLE THEY WOULD HAVE TO VIOLATE THE TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF THE CONTRACT THEY HAD JUST SIGNED.

Using the cable example, all that will be accomplished is that many people will have their evening interrupted for no good reason.

I beg you not to give in to industry pressure. Leave the no-call lists laws intact or even strengthen them.
